Unconscious Spacetime

The following text has emerged between 1993 and 1995 and was initially titled “elementary philosophy”.

me, conscious

see

changes: time

more than one thing,

something else than me: space want: pictures change take least complex explanation food: own body exists protection: outside world exists sex: others exist, men and women unconscious communication usually only between men and women:

unconscious exists

it can think everything the conscious can and see part of the future quantum mechanics and relativity virtual particles exist ($v > c$) everything is influenced by everything that is, was and will be
